

Women Who Advocate for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

Women's History Month at Capodichino and Support Site libraries

Today, equity, diversity and inclusion are powerful driving forces that have a wide-ranging impact. As members of families, businesses, the military, civic and community organizations and legislative bodies, women are in the forefront of reevaluating the status quo.

We recognize the examples of women who are committed to embracing everyone and excluding no one in the common quest for freedom and opportunity through special displays, online bibliographies and biographies.
