DSIS Family Portal Maintenance June 26 - July 8

The DoDEA Student Information System (DSIS) Family Portal will be unavailable from Wednesday, June 26 at 3:00 p.m. ET until Monday, July 8 at 12:00 p.m. ET. Parents and students will not be able to access the system or register students during this time. Registration will resume when the system is reopened on July 8.

Registration portal link, tip sheets, new family account instructions and more can be found at <https://www.dodea.edu/registration>.

College and Career Planning Checklist

Keep track of key steps to take during each grade of high school to help you plan for college and career.

Reviewing P/SAT scores, talking to the school counselor, taking a career quiz, visiting college campuses, reviewing college costs, accessing financial aid information, exploring scholarships, writing essays and more. Review step-by-step recommendations in semester time blocks.

Post-9/11 GI Bill® Benefits

- If you are considering transferring your GI Bill benefits to a dependent, or you are a dependent who has received transferred benefits, these five points will help you better understand how to use them:
- The transferer of benefits must have completed 10 years of service before the recipient can begin to use benefits.
- The recipient of transferred benefits may use them while the transferer still serves on active duty or after separation.
- The recipient may not use these benefits until they have a high school diploma or equivalent certificate AND have reached age 18.
- The recipient can receive housing even if the transferer(s) is (are) serving on active duty.
- The recipient must use these benefits before they turn 26 years of age.
